CAUSE

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the conditions of supervision as follows:

Allegation No. 1: On or about February 27, 2013, the defendant viewed, accessed, or possessed sexually explicit materials.

Evidence in support of this allegation includes sexually explicit magazines, which were collected from the defendant's residence on February 27, 2013.

Allegation No. 2: During the months of June 2013 through September 2013, the defendant failed to attend sex-offender treatment, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant failed to appear for seven scheduled treatment sessions on the following dates: June 3, 2013, June 10, 2013, July 1, 2013, July 8, 2013, July 15, 2013, July 23, 2013, and July 29, 2013.

Evidence in support of this allegation includes collateral documentation from Intermountain Specialized Abuse Treatment (ISAT).

Allegation No. 3: The defendant failed to reside at the Residential Reentry Center (RRC), as he absconded on September 16, 2013, and his whereabouts are currently unknown, in violation of the rules and regulations of the RRC.

Evidence in support of this allegation includes collateral documentation from the RRC.

Allegation No. 4: The defendant failed to notify his probation officer ten days prior to a change in employment. On or about September 16, 2013, the defendant discontinued his employment without notifying his assigned probation officer.

Evidence in support of this allegation includes collateral contact with the defendant's employer.
